OFFENSES

ARTICLE I. IN GENERAL

Sec. 19-1. Offenses against good morals and decency.

A bill for an ordinance relating to offenses against good morals and decency.

Be it ordained by the board of trustees of the town of Freeburg, as follows:

1. That the several acts and offences as specified in this ordinance are hereby prohibited in the town of Freeburg, and any person found guilty or convicted of either or any of them shall be subject to the penalties herein provided for them respectively. (Ord. 13, §1)
2. Every person who shall keep open any dramshop, ale, beer, porter or other tippling or drinking house for the purpose of selling or bartering, either directly or indirectly, or permitting to be drunk therein, any fermented or distilled liquors on Sunday, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum of not less than $25 nor more than $100. (Ord. 13, §2)
3. Every person who shall sell or offer to sell on Sunday any goods, wares or merchandise, other than drugs, medicines or other articles of immediate necessity, or who shall perform any labor, or compel his apprentice or employee, or any other person under his charge or control, to perform any labor, other than the actual necessary duties of life on Sunday, shall upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not exceeding $50. (Ord. 13, §3)
4. Every person who shall appear in any public place in this town in a state of nudity, or in a dress or clothing not belonging to his or her sex, or in any indecent dress or costume, or shall make any indecent exposure of his or her person, or shall be guilty of any indecent or lewd act or behavior, or who shall exhibit, sell or offer to sell any indecent or lewd book, picture or other thing, or shall exhibit or perform any indecent, immoral or lewd play or act or other representation, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $100. (Ord. 13, §4)
5. Any person who shall keep or maintain a brothel or house of ill fame or prostitution, or a house in which disorderly licentious, obscene or indecent conduct or language is permitted or allowed, shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than $50 nor more than $500; and any person who shall knowingly lease or rent any house, hall, tenement or other place for any of the purposes set out and mentioned in this section, shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than $50 nor more than $500; and every person who shall reside in or be an inmate or shall visit or frequent such house for lewd, licentious, obscene or indecent purposes shall, on conviction, be fined not less than $10 nor more than $100; and the fact of any person being found in such house between the hours of 9 o'clock p.m. and 5 o'clock a.m. shall be prima facie evidence of his or her visiting or frequenting the same for such purposes; and any house as mentioned in this section may be adjudged and declared a nuisance by the chairman of the board of trustees, and the keeper of such house shall be liable to a fine of $10 for each and every day it shall be so kept, after having been declared a nuisance as herein provided. (Ord. 13, §5)

6. Any person who shall keep, maintain or harbor in this town any prostitute, knowing her to be such, shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not more than $50. (Ord. 13, §6)
7. Any person being found intoxicated, or using profane or obscene language on any street, lane, alley, lot or public place in this town, shall on conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not more than $50. (Ord. 13, §7)
8. Any person who shall be found so drunk on any of the streets, alleys, lanes, lots or other public places in the town of Freeburg that he cannot walk or take care of himself, or so drunk that he may endanger the safety of others, shall be taken in charge by the marshal and put in the calaboose, and kept there until he is sober, when he shall be brought before the chairman of the board of trustees, and if convicted of being drunk as herein provided, he shall be fined in a sum of not exceeding $50. (Ord. 13, §8)
9. Any person who shall beat or mistreat any animal in an immoderate and unnecessary manner shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum of not less than $5 nor more than $100. (Ord. 13, §9)
10. Any person who shall exhibit any stallion or jackass on any public street, or any person who shall stand any stallion or jackass within the incorporate limits of the town of Freeburg, on conviction thereof, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding $100. (Ord. 13, §10)
11. Any person who shall allow any stallion, jackass, bull or unaltered male hog, mule, sheep or goat to run at large within the limits of the town of Freeburg, or on any of the public streets, alleys or commons thereof, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not exceeding $10. (Ord. 13, §11)
12. Any person who shall willfully disturb the peace of any neighborhood, person or family, within the limits of the town of Freeburg, by loud or unusual noise, or by loud, offensive or indecent talk or conversation, or by threatening, quarreling, challenging or fighting, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum of not more than $100. (Ord. 13, §12)
13. Any person who shall willfully, maliciously or contemptuously disturb any congregation or assembly of people met for religious worship or other lawful purpose by making a noise, or by rude or indecent conversation or behavior, or by profane discourse, within their place of worship or assembly, or so near thereto as to disturb the solemnity or business of the meeting, or shall menace, threaten or assault any person there being, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum of not more than $100. (Ord. 13, §13)
